Sponsorship Prospectus

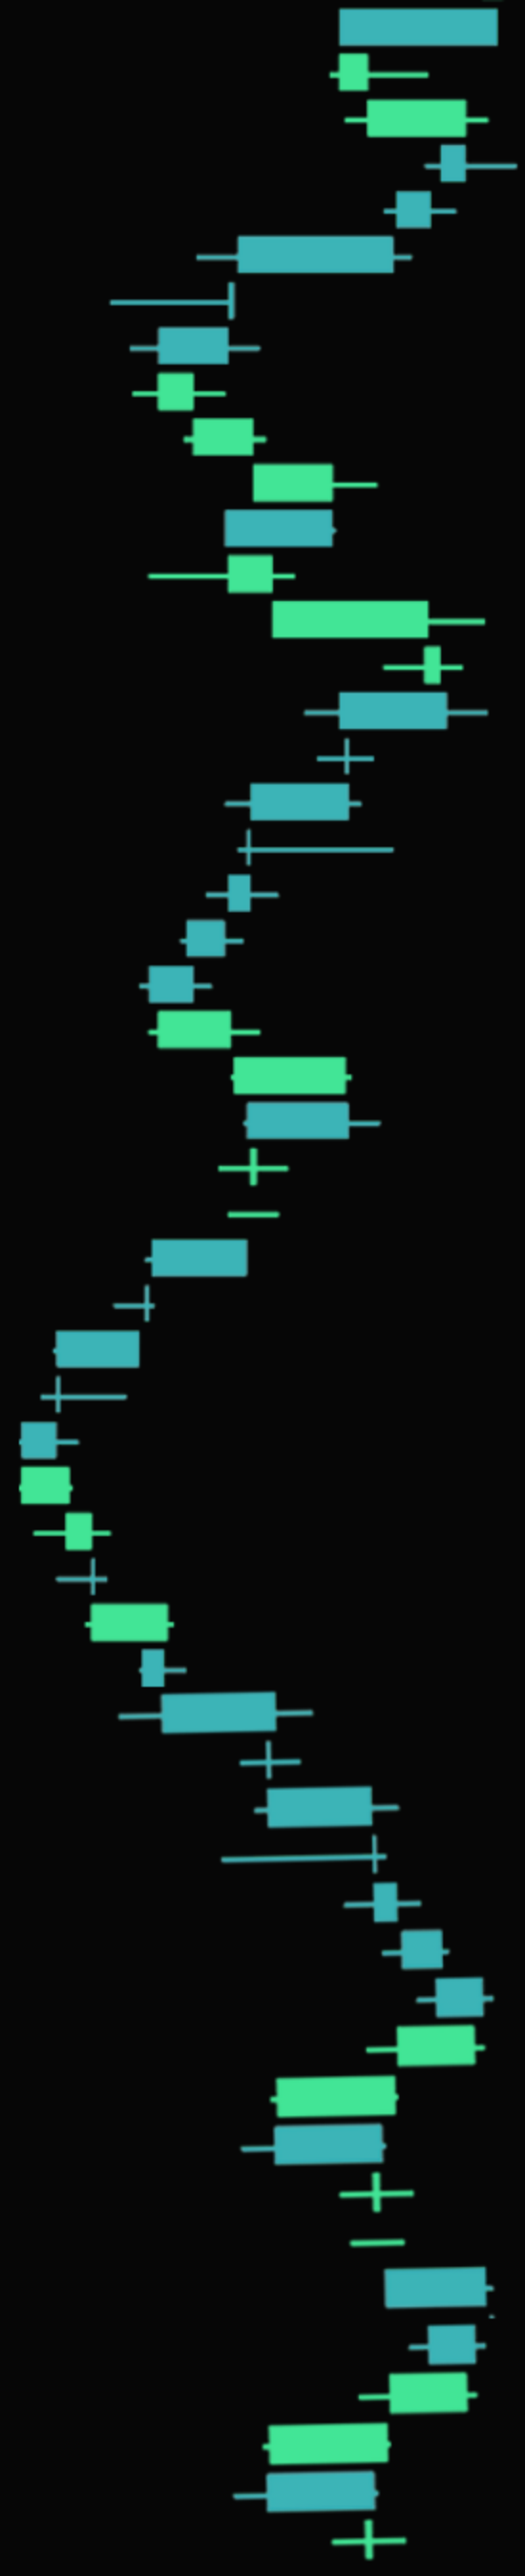

WHAT IS ECONHACKS?

- EconHacks is a global organisation aimed at organising inter-disciplinary hackathons between the fields of AI, Cryptocurrencies and other latest technologies to solve current day economic problems.
- Owing to EconHack's success in past, we are organising EconHacks Bangalore, the Bangalore chapter of EconHacks aimed at an Indian audience
- EconHacks Bangalore will be a nationwide virtual event consisting of workshops, creative events, contests and more with the goal of educating the youth about economy related issues and how we could combat these using technology.

OUR MISSION

- To be a responsible member of society by working towards making positive changes.
- To encourage peers to help economically affected communities and improve technical skills.
- To increase awareness on how the economy works and improve financial literacy.
- To let the working class know that they are not alone and we, the young people are ready and capable to help them.
- To provide youth brimming with ideas a platform and motivation to bring their ideas to life through your support.

EVENT DETAILS

- The Bangalore chapter of EconHacks will be held virtually from October 1st-3rd on Discord and Zoom.
- Workshops by global speakers on topics including coding, Blockchain, AI, and Economics.
- Present prize pool value of over 75k INR consisting of t-shirts, cash prizes, software and coupons.

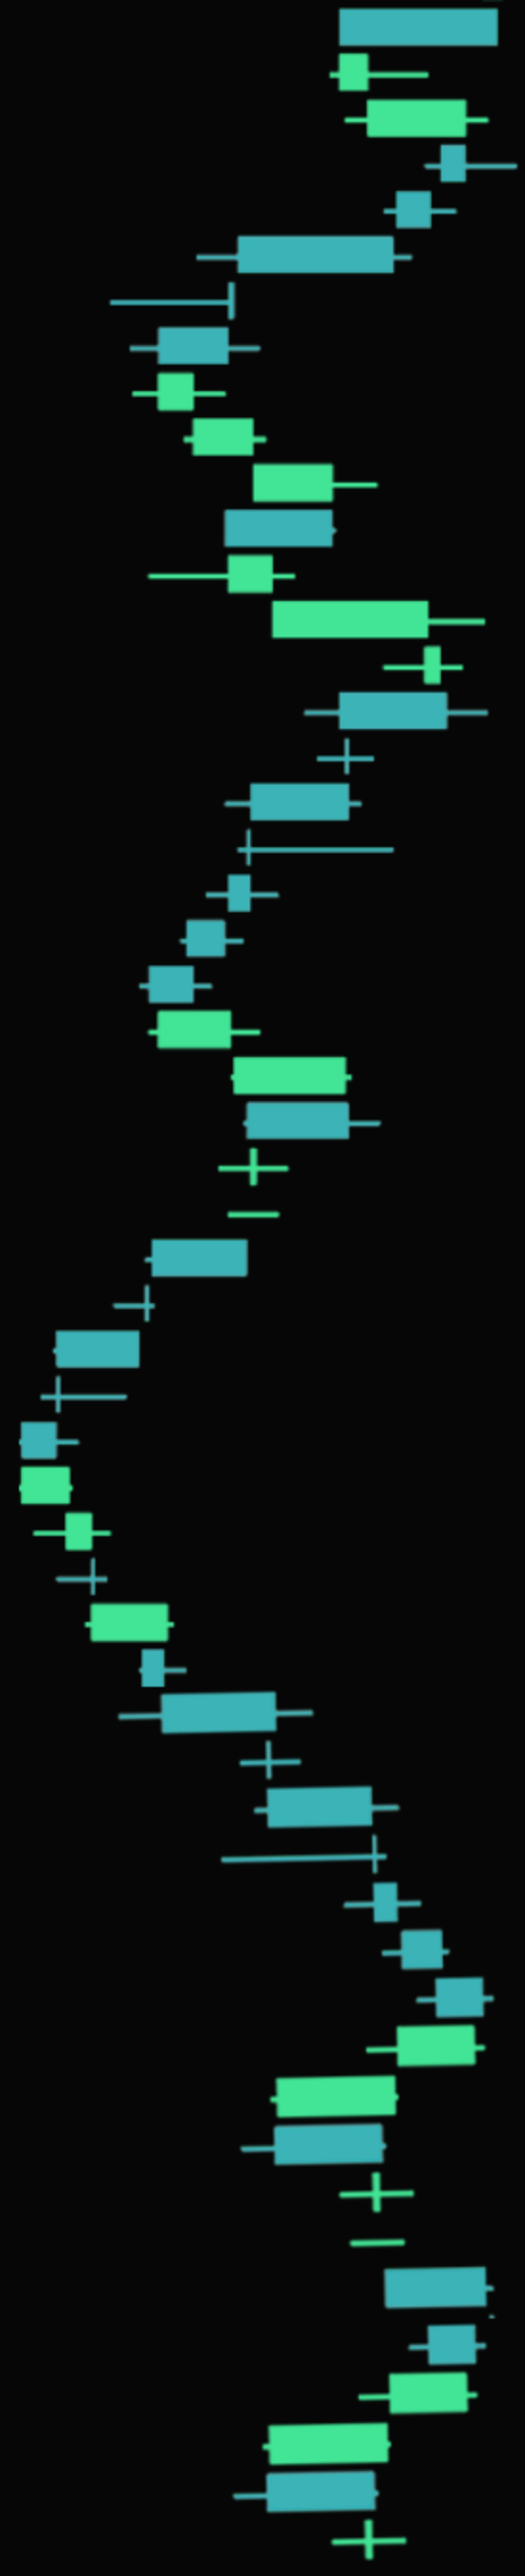

WORKSHOPS

- We aim to reach experts in this field and also look forward to help beginners gain knowledge by conducting workshops on diverse topics ranging from technology to economics and have thus laid the foundation for sponsors to conduct workshops.

WHY SPONSOR

- Help in supporting our mission of aiding people in achieving financial literacy and equality by conducting free workshops
- Gain access to contact details of participants and winners for further interaction, funding opportunities and also prospecting for interns
- Get your logo featured in various places including our website, social media posts, certificates and more
- Opportunity to demonstrate your product live during the event
